About American Promise Schools and MacDowell

American Promise Schools (APS) was formed in April 2013 with a focus on the turnaround and support of existing urban schools in Michigan. During the 2013-14 school year, APS supported its first network school, the Jalen Rose Leadership Academy. APS added two additional schools to the network in the 2014-15 school year: Voyageur College Preparatory High School and Voyageur Academy. In the 2016-17 school year, APS added MacDowell Preparatory Academy. MacDowell Preparatory Academy is an open enrollment, public charter school located on the northwest side of the city servicing students grades K-8. For more information on American Promise Schools and MacDowell please visit www.promiseschools.org and www.macdowellprep.com.

Scope of Services:

Provision of the following services for MacDowell Preparatory Academy:

- Special education program development and coordination:
 - Needs analysis to determine required services
 - Design and implementation of special education program to meet students' needs
 - Process and policy support, including creation of custom policy manual
 - Facilitation of processes from initial referral through the delivery of services, including transition services
 - Leadership on all matters related to special education compliance and reporting
 - Preparation and implementation of in-service programs for school staff
 - Analysis and synthesis of assessment results to recommend instructional improvements and adjustments to special education plans
 - Coaching to all staff servicing students with IEPs

- Special education teacher(s):
 - Provide special education resource room teachers for special education student population;
 - Administer standardized ability and achievement tests, and interpret results to determine students' strengths and areas of need
 - Modify the general education curriculum for IEP students, based on a variety of instructional techniques and technologies
 - Employ strategies and techniques during instruction to improve the development of sensory-and perceptual-motor skills, language, cognition, and memory.
 - Confer with parents, administrators, testing specialists, social workers, and other professionals to develop individual education plans designed to promote students' educational, physical, and social development.

- Speech/Language Therapy:
 - Provide speech/language therapy staff for student population;
 - Address the needs of students with communication disabilities, such as impairments in language, speech, and voice
 - Screen, identify, assess, and diagnose disorders of language, articulation, fluency, voice, and oral-pharyngeal function and provide speech and language services for the habilitation or prevention of communication disorders. Services are provided within the classroom or in individual/small group therapy sessions as specified by the IEP.

- Social Work:
 - Provide social worker for students to provide a link between home, school and community, enabling students and their families to overcome social and personal problems that impede learning.
 - Provide individual and group counseling, consultation to teachers, and other services that help a student cope with their individual learning challenges.
 - Collaborate with community agencies and provide case management for students and their families requiring multiple services.

- Psychological Evaluations:

- Consult and work cooperatively with school administrators, special education program staff, teachers and parents in evaluating the student (after a referral is initiated and parental consent obtained).
- Evaluations involves performing assessments using a variety of techniques and tools. An evaluation may include the following: an educational evaluation, a psychological evaluation, a social history (a history of the student's development based largely on an interview with the parent), and observations of the student in his or her classroom.
- Applies the Cattell-Horn-Carroll (CHC) theory, which is an empirically based, valid and measurable construct for the analysis of learning abilities. May also conduct other evaluations to determine the source of the student's difficulties, including a functional behavioral assessment (FBA) if the student's behavior interferes with learning.
- IEP/MET Meetings:
 - Once the evaluation is complete and the findings of the evaluation have been reported per federal and state guidelines, the information and recommendations are shared with the parents through an IEP/MET meeting. Provider will schedule the IEP/MET meeting, during which the parent is told if the student is eligible for special education.
 - If the student is eligible, an IEP is created for the student. The IEP is a legal document that includes the student's present levels of educational performance, a list of measurable goals and objectives and related services, such as curriculum modifications and supplementary aids. Also included is an explanation of how often the student will participate in the general education population, when the services and modifications will begin, and the location of those services and modifications.
 - Arrange/schedule IEPT/REED meetings for all students with IEPs
- Reporting:
 - Document progress towards IEP goals
 - Provide reporting on:
 - Correlations between standardized testing scores (MEAP, MME, ACT Plan and Explore, etc.) and student report card achievement.
 - Missed assignments vs. student academic grade
 - Absences vs. student academic grade
 - Progress between current year variables (1st vs. 2nd quarter)
 - Other reports as determined by Principal, board or ESP
- Compliance Management
 - Complete monthly Medicaid billing
 - Manage IDEA compliance
 - Manage special education student count reporting
 - MEAP & MI-Access Assessment
 - Maintain special education student files and data entry in SIS including preparation for state pupil accounting reporting
 - Management of federal funds (MEGS) and IDEA flow through grant
 - Provider/vendor participation in ongoing training to ensure that staff stay up to date on federal and state laws.

- Maintenance of computerized tracking system to project mandated deadlines so all services are rendered on time.
- Quarterly audits of student files to ensure compliance obligations are met.
- Review of student files managed by non-GPS staff as needed.
- Recommend and take action to remedy non-compliance files as needed
